"A GREAT SOUL SERVES EVERYONE ALL THE TIME. A GREAT SOUL NEVER DIES. IT BRINGS US TOGETHER AGAIN AND AGAIN."
-MAYA ANGELOU

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine;
Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.

Perfect submission, perfect delight,
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight;
Angels descending, bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love.

Perfect submission, all is at rest.
I in my Savior am happy and blest;
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love.

THE LASTING MEMORY of Brady Manuel Stewart

Brady Manuel Stewart, born on May 25th 1957 in Richmond CA to loving parents Brady and Henrymae Stewart, carried a name that resonated through generations. This name Brady, was a testament to familial connection and individual uniqueness. His father, Brady, bore the name inherited from his own father as Brady Stewart without a middle name. Each Brady who followed was given a distinct namesake ensuring that each bearer of the name held a special identity. Brady Manuel Stewart, named after his father and adorned with his uncle Manuel Scott Sr.'s name, embodied a distinguished and well-defined character.

With a bold sense of classic masculine fashion, Brady exhibited a keen eye for selecting timeless clothing and cars, reflecting his sophisticated charm and polished demeanor. Known for his debonair allure, he effortlessly captivated the hearts of many, especially the ladies, yet and still he remained steadfast in his pursuit of becoming a man after God's own heart.

Brady was a faithful member as a youth at Mount Olive Church of God in Christ in Richmond California. He was a serial champion in Bible drills and scripture memorization. Brady had an intellectual ability that was noticed early in his education. He was placed in classes offering specialized curriculum, enrichment activities, and opportunities to further stimulate the intellectual growth of gifted students. He was also known as a human calculator.

From a young age, Brady demonstrated his managerial skills, taking on a newspaper route and efficiently delegating tasks to younger neighborhood boys. While he supervised, they folded the papers, and he would then deliver them. When he was paid he ensured all of his helpers received their fair share of compensation for their efforts.

After Business School, Brady was hired by Pacific Bell/AT&T in San Ramon CA. From 1976 to 2002, he distinguished himself in diverse roles, garnering praise for his leadership and commitment. He held several positions during his tenure, ranging from Data Specialist for a Human Resources training organization to the supervision and Management of several employees and accounts in the Graphics and print reproduction departments in the Northern and Southern California regions. He extended his impact beyond regular duties by actively participating in the company's youth empowerment program C.I.T.I.E.S, which aimed to inspire and involve inner-city youth. His dedication to both his community and family transcended his professional achievements, leaving a lasting impression on many through his generosity, humor, and support.

Brady was a master of conversation and also a generous giver of his time, talents, and treasures. He possessed a remarkable ability to engage in discussions ranging from the spiritual to sports to current events. Despite living in the digital age, he continued to carry a physical newspaper under his arm, a symbol of his commitment to staying informed and connected to the world around him. While working at Making Waves Education Program in Richmond CA his duties allowed him to connect with many youth inspiring them to continue to make good life decisions.

He worshiped at St. John Missionary Baptist Church in Richmond CA as an adult and for the past several years. Even though he was never an official member of McGlothen Temple C.O.G.I.C, he loved and supported many of the ministry's endeavors. He believed in supporting the household of faith. He said "no matter what, God comes first." He had a unique way of delivering the Gospel on time, in a relatable, refreshing, casual and cool manner to the youthful, young and young at heart. An inspirational message may have been strategically tied into a kitchen table conversation, a raiders, Warriors,or Giants game. Or even while watching a boxing match.

Brady Stewart's legacy extends beyond his professional accomplishments. As a devoted father, son, brother, uncle, and friend, he touched the lives of many with his healing humor and timely inspiration and encouragement. His son, Brady James Stewart, stands as an extension of his heart, carrying forth his namesake with pride.

In his final months, Brady Stewart committed his heart to Sherri Davis. On March 28th, 2024, Brady Manuel Stewart departed this life, leaving behind a legacy of love, compassion, and unwavering faith. He was, indeed, one of God's coolest creations, whose presence will be deeply missed yet forever cherished.

Do not stand at my grave and forever weep. I am not there; I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn's rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet circl
